Pflugerville I.S.D. Acceptable Use Policy for Technology Resources

Definition of District Technology Resources

The District's computer systems and networks are defined as any configuration of hardware, operating system software, application software, stored text, and data files. Examples include electronic mail, local databases, externally accessed resources (such as the Internet), CD-ROM, optical media, clip art, digital images, digitized information, communications technologies, and new technologies as they become available.

Acceptable Use

The District's technology resources will be used only for learning, teaching and administrative purposes consistent with the District's mission and goals. The District will make copies of the acceptable use policy available to all users.

Access to the District's Electronic Communications System is a privilege not a right. All users are required to be aware of, understand, and comply with all administrative regulations governing the use of the electronic systems. Noncompliance may result in suspension of access or termination of privileges and other disciplinary action consistent with district policies. (Student Code of Conduct, Employee Handbook, Administrative Procedures Manual, and School Board Policy)

A student knowingly accessing or bringing prohibited materials into the school's electronic environment will be subject to a suspension and/or a revocation of privileges on the District's system and will be subject to disciplinary action in accordance with the Student Code of Conduct.

An employee knowingly accessing or bringing prohibited materials into the school's electronic environment will be subject to disciplinary action in accordance with District policies.

Access Availability

Access to the District's Electronic Communications System, including the Internet, shall be made available to students and employees primarily for instructional and administrative purposes and in accordance with administrative regulations. Limited personal use of the system shall be permitted if the use;

1. imposes no tangible cost on the district;
2. does not unduly burden the district's computer or network resources; and
3. has no adverse effect on the employee's job performance or on a student's academic performance.

Public Access

Access to the District's Electronic Communications System, including the Internet, shall be made available to members of the public, in accordance with administrative regulations. Such use may be permitted so long as the use:

1. imposes no measurable cost on the district; and
2. does not unduly burden the district's computer or network resources.

Monitored Use

The District reserves the right to monitor all technology resource activity.

Student use of the computers and computer network is only allowed when supervised by staff members.

Electronic mail transmissions and other use of the electronic communication system by students and employees shall not be considered private. Designated District staff shall be authorized to monitor such communication at any time to ensure appropriate use.

Network

Improper or illegal use of any computer or the network is prohibited. This includes the following:

- Using racist, profane, or obscene language or objectionable materials
- Attempting to or harming equipment, materials or data
- Attempting to or sending anonymous messages
- Using the network to access inappropriate material
- Knowingly placing a computer virus on a computer or the network
- Using the network to provide addresses or other personal information that others may use inappropriately
- Accessing of information resources, files and documents of another user without their permission

Deleting outdated files on a regular basis is required of all Users.

Security

You may not share your account with anyone or leave the account open or unattended. Attempting to log on or logging on to a computer or email system by using another's password is prohibited. Assisting others in violating this rule by sharing information or passwords is unacceptable. Users will change passwords regularly using combinations of letters and numbers.

Users are responsible for saving all documents to the server. Department of Technology staff will attempt to recover documents only if they have been saved to the server.

Internet Safety / Filtering

The District adheres to the federal Children's Internet Protection Act Guidelines. (CIPA) The District network maintains a filtering device that blocks access to visual depictions that are obscene, pornographic, inappropriate for students or harmful to minors as defined by the federal CIPA. The District shall enforce the use of such filtering devices and shall not authorize the disabling of a filtering device for any reason. The following are in place to protect students' Internet use.

1. Students access to inappropriate materials is controlled through the Internet filter.
2. The district's private email system does not allow outside access to the directory of names.
3. Students are not allowed to reveal personal address or phone number information when using the electronic communication system.
4. Chats using the district email system will be supervised and monitored.
5. Students may participate in prearranged Internet chats with experts that have been scheduled by PISD staff.
6. Instant Messaging is restricted to Intranet chats.

Although the district will use these preventative practices, system users and parents should be aware that use of the system may provide access to other electronic communications systems in the global electronic network that may contain inaccurate and/or objectionable material.

Copyright

All users are responsible for adhering to existing copyright laws and District Policy pertaining to software, resources, references, video, sound and graphics. Users will cite their source of information. Questions concerning copyright can be referred to the campus or district administrative staff.

Email

1. Email cannot be used for private or commercial offerings of products or services for sale or to solicit products or services.
2. Email cannot be used for political or religious purposes.
3. Email will be deleted regularly to conserve server file space.
4. Email messages that cause network congestion or interfere with the delivery of mail to others are not acceptable.
5. Email from list serves must not affect the system's performance.

System users are to observe the following network etiquette.

6. Be polite. Messages typed in capital letters are considered rude.
7. Email messages and conference postings will not contain improper language, swearing, vulgarity, ethnic or racial slurs or any other inflammatory language. Conference postings will follow the District guidelines or be removed.
8. Do not reveal personal information of users or others.
9. Do not send chain letters, or forward messages to large groups of users.
10. Users are responsible for material delivered to their accounts.
11. Mail from outside email providers must meet the District Acceptable Use Policy.
